Pimples and Blemishes Cleared Away by Poslam, the New Skin Remedy.

Results are seen after one evening's application of poslam when used for pimples, blemishes, rashes, undue redness, clearing the complexion, etc. It works wonders in quickly restoring any affected skin to normal condition and healthy tone. "My face was always full of big pimples, and I used to be ashamed to go on the street," writes Mrs. Helen Christian, Jersey City, N. J., "but since I used poslam my face is as clear as a new-born baby's."

In promptly disposing of these minor skin troubles, poslam gives evidence of its remarkable powers to heal the more serious and stubborn skin diseases, such as acne, tetter, scabies, etc., in which it has made its great reputation. Testing is the best test, and poslam is applied in a simple sufficient to show results is mailed free, upon request, by the Emergency Laboratories, 32 West Twenty-fifth Street, New York City. ## ROOSEVELT BEATS HIS OPPONENTS TO A FRAZZLE

Ing before State Chairman Woodruff formally announced that Colonel Roosevelt was the choice of the convention for temporary chairman.

The victory of Colonel Roosevelt in the first counting of noses, did not appear to dishearten the Old Guard for they continued their fight on the convention floor, when the Progressives submitted resolutions whereby the committees should be made by representatives from each congressional district, the members to be named by the temporary chairman.

Saying that this gave absolute power to Colonel Roosevelt, Speaker Wadsworth, of the Assembly, strongly opposed the resolution. The Progressives, however, were in the ascendency, and resolutions drafted by friends of Colonel Roosevelt were adopted.

Committee members, before the convention, the make-up of the committee on credentials was without significance, and it was quickly named and announced by Colonel Roosevelt, as was the committee on permanent organization. The committee on resolutions is the one that has the direct primary plank caused Colonel Roosevelt to hold up the resolution until he could go over the names before him. He called Representative Herbert Parsons, of New York City, to the speaker's stand, and striking out the names submitted, announced the resolutions committee, among whom were William Barnes, Jr., Speaker James A. Wadsworth, of the Assembly; George W. Aldridge, Senator Cobb, author of the recently defeated direct primary bill; former Mayor Seth Low, of New York City; Jacob Gould Schurman, president of Cornell University; Senator Brackett, Representative Seroen E. Payne and Representative J. Sloan Fassett.

Talk of gubernatorial candidates was submerged during the day by the main contest waged over the temporary chairmanship, but to-night friends of Representative Bennett, of New York; Frederick C. Stevens, State Superintendent of Public Works; Henry T. Stimson, former United States District Attorney, were candidates.

The legend that statesmen are punctually late applied with equal force to-day to the leaders of the Old Guard and the Progressives, who gathered tardily at the opening of the Republican State Convention. Not so the delegates or the spectators who swarmed into every nook and cranny of the convention hall, filled all the seats and overflowed into the aisles.

The word has gone forth that the Old Guard were beaten in their fight to elect Vice-President Sherman the temporary chairman, and every one waited for the real fireworks.

Colonel Roosevelt was the first to come. His appearance started rounds of applause. Shortly after Vice-President Sherman took his seat and the demonstration shook the building for several minutes.

William Barnes, Jr., the Old Guard leader, came in for salutes of applause.

Great Crush in Hall.

An hour before the convention met the street in front of the hall was packed with a mob of visitors seeking admission, and when the big, wide doors were opened a frightful crush ensued, men and women struggling for entrance. Hats were smashed, bonnets torn off as the writhing, swearing crowd pushed their way to points of vantage.

In a jiffy the public gallery was filled, and in ten minutes the reserved seats were filled. Soon the aisles were so packed that the arriving delegates had to fight their way to their sections. The village police were called in to handle the mob which took possession of the hall and swept aside the delegates. The Sherman root-ers were early in the hall, going to impending defeat gayly and with a song, the burden of which was, "What's the matter with Sherman; he's all right."

The hall by this time was dangerously overcrowded, every stairway packed, people sitting in windows and thronging the exits far out into the street and alleys. The stage was overcrowded and every aisle was so jammed that the lower floor presented a compact, solid mass of humanity. Everybody wanted to see the big fight. The news that Mrs. Ida Clausen had secured a platform seat and intended to "punch T. R." added to the expectancy.

First Fight Numerous.

First fights over the possession of seats were frequent, as men seemed to be crazy to stay in the hall at any cost.

Soon after 12 o'clock Colonel Roosevelt entered a side gate and was wildly cheered. In another minute Sherman entered and was just as enthusiastically cheered.

There was no semblance of a convention in the wild mob that filled the building by this time. Two thousand people without tickets were in the hall and filled even the delegates' seats.

When the gavel of Chairman Woodruff tried to get the hall into some kind of shape, and called upon the inspector of police to come to his assistance, but that worthy found himself lamentably in the minority and about as effective as a minnow's efforts to drive away a whale.

Fights were breaking out all over the hall while Chairman Woodruff pleaded, besought and threatened the crowds to make way.

Newspaper men grew sore at seeing men admitted to the hall before the hour of opening, and they still excluded from getting in and arranging seats for work. The doorman said none but Sherman men could get in before the rest. It did not amount to much.

for hardly more than a score had the benefit of it, but the disposition of the doorkeepers was manifest. Probably it was their own idea, for if the committee had planned it the house would have been packed with Sherman adherents.

Interest in Roosevelt.

The same interest in Roosevelt that has been shown elsewhere brought thousands here to-day to see the lion of the time, especially since he is to appear in action. Suffragette leaflets were placed in every seat and even on the press tables, pleading for the submission of an amendment to the Constitution that will guarantee suffrage to women.

State Committeemen Daniels and Grimm were re-elected this morning and the unit rule was adopted, so that no delegate could vote his own way without an appeal to the convention to sustain his claim to do so. The unit rule was killed as a principle or policy in Republican conventions where it was sought to be applied in national convention at a time when Colonel Roosevelt was a delegate. He was conspicuous in the successful effort to beat it.

It seems odd to apply it in his behalf in a State convention now, but the main reason is to shut off any possible votes for Sherman and to give Sherman men the excuse that the unit rule made them helpless. But they were unanimous for the rule when the delegation held its caucus.

Chaplain Offers Prayer.

In the midst of the wildest disorder and frenzied scenes, the gentle voice of the chaplain was heard in invocation. The change was magical. Belligerents loosened their holds for the time, and silence fell upon the hall.

while the gentle old man delivered his prayer.

Hardly had the last word dropped from his lips when bedlam broke loose again. Loud protests were heard from the delegates whose seats were occupied.

Is Called to Order.

Chairman Woodruff called the convention to order at 12:30, and the aisles had been cleared the convention took up the regular order of business.

Consider Candidates for Governor.

Colonel Roosevelt held an extended conference to-night with United States Senator Root, Lloyd C. Griscom and Charles S. Francis, of Troy, former ambassador to Austria, to consider the available candidates for Governor. It was learned that Henry L. Stimson, former United States district attorney of New York, who successfully prosecuted the sugar trust officials; Comptroller Pendergast, of New York, and Birmingham, were considered, and that Colonel Roosevelt leans strongly toward Senator Hinman.

Colonel Roosevelt laid late to-night that no decision had been reached, and that it was the sense of the conference that nothing could be said at this time. The conference was expected to continue well into Wednesday morning.

Barnes Is Satisfied.

William Barnes, Jr., leader of the Old Guard, in a statement to-night declared that Colonel Roosevelt had used his "cudgel" against the delegates from Vice-President Sherman's district, hence "Mr. Sherman dared to oppose him."

"The result of the fight in the convention is entirely satisfactory," said Mr. Barnes. "That 43 delegates, out of 1,015, withstood the charge which tried to ride roughshod over their convictions and their sense of orderly political procedure is of everlasting credit to them."

United States Senator Elihu Root was selected to-night by the committee on permanent organization as permanent chairman, and will address the convention to-morrow.

COLONEL SCORES OLD GUARD.

Stung by Committee Vote, Roosevelt Authorizes Hot Statement.

Saratoga, N. Y., September 27.—Stirred by the action of the Republican State Committee, which last night resolved by a vote of 22 to 15, that no deceit or fraud had been practiced in the selection of Mr. Sherman as temporary presiding officer, Colonel Roosevelt early to-day authorized the following statement:

"The conduct of a majority of the State Committee last evening puts in the clearest light what this contest really is. The statements of Messrs. Griscom, Krueger, Wadsworth, and Henkel prove conclusively the trickery that was used in the effort to win a majority and keep the management of the party under the control of the men who have discredited it by their actions. There has never been a State convention to which it was better worth going than it is to this, for never in another has the issue been so clearly drawn between cleanliness and honesty in public life that peculiar baseness in political management which has made the convention an obnoxious to the people. Our fight is squarely against corruption, and the unclean baseness which has bred corruption. The men who by trickery kept control of the State Committee and who now come here in the effort to dominate the convention are the very men who are responsible for the corruption which produced Allds and for all that has been discredited in the party management; and now these deeply discredited bosses resent the effort of the people, the effort of the plain people who make up the great bulk of the Republican party, to rescue that party from the factions which have used it only to further their own base and selfish purposes."

WOMAN MAKES SECOND ATTEMPT TO END LIFE

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Norfolk, Va., September 27.—Miss Ines Latham made the second attempt in four days this morning to end her life, when she jumped out of a second-story window at her home on Nottingham Street, in Berkeley Ward. One of her hips was dislocated, and she was otherwise injured. The young woman is now confined in the hospital ward at the city jail pending an investigation of her case by a lunacy commission. Her relatives think that she is insane.

Last Saturday Miss Latham started to the Elizabeth River with the intention of drowning herself, but was prevented from doing so by her brother-in-law. Then she was sent to Central Police Station, where she remained for two days. Upon the promise of the young woman that she would make no further attempt to end her life, Miss Latham was allowed to return home Monday. A love affair is said to be at the bottom of her troubles.

ERRORS MADE IN CHECKING NAMES

sons had been permitted to vote who did not have a right to vote and that eighteen persons were recorded as having voted who did not vote at all in the Third Ward of Portsmouth. Mr. Young said that B. Galumbeck, now dead, was one of twelve men who were recorded as voting when they had no right to vote. With the general allegation that many persons were recorded as voting in the First Ward of Portsmouth who did not vote, Mr. Young called the names of five persons recorded as voting there who were not qualified.

Second Storm Centre.

The Second Ward of Portsmouth was the storm centre of Mr. Young's charges of fraud in that city. He related specifically forty-eight persons who voted there when they were not qualified, and twenty-eight persons recorded as voting who did not vote at all. One of these, Mr. Young's answer says was P. J. Jordan, now in China. No charges of fraud were made in the Fourth Ward of Portsmouth. This is the home ward of Portsmouth City Chairman Samuel T. Montague. Neither are any specific charges of fraud made by Mr. Young in the Sixth or Seventh Wards of Portsmouth, which in the territory recently annexed from Norfolk county.

"Mollie" Johnson Recorded.

Turning to the counties of Isle of Wight, Nansemond and Southampton, Mr. Young, in the Windsor Precinct of Isle of Wight, found on the poll books, according to his allegations, the name of "Mollie Johnson" as one of thirty-four persons whom the contestee says were recorded as voting when not duly qualified. In Cypress Precinct of Nansemond county Mr. Young says he received one vote to thirty-one counted for Mr. Maynard, and out of the total of thirty-two votes cast, six persons whose last names commenced with a "B" were recorded as voting one after the other, and likewise seven beginning with "E," three with "D," and two each with "G" and "H." At Pauls Branch Precinct, in Nansemond, Mr. Young says no poll books were used, the simple last names of persons voting being recorded.

In Franklin, Southampton county, Mr. Young says no copies of the official registration books were used, and at Drewesville, in Southampton, twelve were voted who had no right to vote.

BLAIR WINNER IN EXCITING MATCH

Defeats Pemberton in One of Most Notable Matches in Club's History.

One of the most gruelling, closely contested and exciting matches ever witnessed at the Hermitage Club was that fought Monday and yesterday afternoons between Donald Blair and Percy Pemberton, victory finally perching upon the shoulders of the former, the score being 5-7, 6-4, 6-4. Both athletes contested each point with determination, and their execution, although at times faulty, was punctuated with severe strokes, quick perception and marked individualism. Blair, as of late, chopped with acumen, generated well and volleyed and smashed with great vigor. Pemberton fought unceasingly, made almost impossible returns, was here and everywhere, and with his punning stroke almost grasped the honors.

Monday afternoon each annexed a set. By superb work Pemberton merited the first set, 7-5.

Score by points:

Pemberton ... 2 4 5 3 3 4 2 1 4 40—4
Blair ... 4 0 3 5 5 2 2 4 2 1—32—5

Blair led at 2-love, 3-1, 4-2 in the second. With the score 4-all the next two went to Blair, and with them the set, Score:

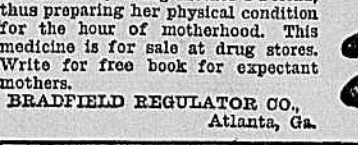

Blair ... 4 4 0 6 4 2 2 4 4—34—6
Pemberton ... 1 1 4 2 2 4 1 1 0—25—4

A coincidence in these sets was that both men won the same number of games, the same number of points, and each won and lost their service the same number of times.

In the deciding set yesterday, Blair started with a rush, and led at 3-1. Matters were all even at 4-4. The next two went to Blair. With the score 6-3 against him, Pemberton did not get a break, and gave an exhibition of game, uphill fighting. He took the ninth game at love, and was 40 to love on the tenth. Here Blair had advantage several times, but just as day was waning and night falling, Blair won the decisive point and the match. Score:

Blair ... 6 4 3 4 4 2 5 4 0 3—41—6
Pemberton ... 4 2 5 5 3 3 0 1 7—37—3

Tyler defeated Robb yesterday in the semi-final round by the score of 6-1, 6-3. Tyler will meet Blair in the final round next Saturday, play to start at 3 o'clock. Three out of five sets will be played.

JAMESTOWN MEET TO BE BEST YET

Manager Levy in Town Looking After the Interests of the Norfolk Race Course.

Manager Bob Levy, of the Jamestown Jockey Club, was in the city yesterday looking after the interests of the fall meeting at Jamestown, which will begin on November 1 and last nineteen days. Manager Levy is making arrangements for horses to go from the Virginia State Fair to the Jamestown track, and it is expected that he will take the cream with him.

Although the Jamestown Jockey Club is a very recently organized institution, it has met with the greatest success under Mr. Levy's management, and has become a well worth the trouble. In the absence of racing in Norfolk and in the North generally at the same season of the year, a large number of Northern owners ship their horses to Jamestown. Incidentally, the fat purses are well worth the trouble.

Manager Levy stated yesterday that he expected the greatest meeting since the organization of the club. The entry lists show some of the best horses in the country, and the greater number of prominent owners have signified their intention of entering their thoroughbreds in the events.
